

Willerby Carr Lane Primary School - Art

Topic:

Year: EYFS

Strand: Painting

What should I already know?

- I can make marks using paint.
- I can paint with my fingers or with a brush.
- I can recognize and name some colours.

What will I know / be able to do by the end of the unit?

What is this colour called?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I can recognize and name red, yellow, green, blue, orange, purple, pink, black, white and brown.
How do I make the colour change?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I can mix different colours of paint with one another to make a new colour/change the original colour. • I can add black or white to a colour to change it.
How do I make the paint look and feel different?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I can add something to the paint to change how it looks and how it feels e.g. cornflour, sand, glitter, string etc.
What else can I use to paint with instead of a brush or my fingers?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I can paint with twigs, card, printing blocks, combs, straws, ping pong balls etc.
Can I choose the right colour for the thing that I am painting a picture of?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I can choose an appropriate colour for the subject of my work e.g. for a given food, for farm animals, for people's faces etc. • I can select colours for myself when working on a fantasy or an imaginary piece of work.

Vocabulary

change	to make something different to how it was different	to change something
paint	(verb) to make marks or a picture or a representation using a specific material
paint	(noun) a specific material used to make marks, pictures or representations
texture	how something feels when it is touched

Artist or Art Movement

n/a

Art Skills and Techniques

- Techniques and skills for painting with ready mix paint.
- Colour mixing using ready mix paint to change the colour from the original.
- Learning to paint with powder paints- learning the technique (initially without mixing colours).
- Colour mixing using powder paint to create a different colour from the original.
- Adding black or white to ready mix or to powder paint to change the colour of the paint.
- Learning the technique for painting with watercolours.
- Experimenting with using different tools (other than a brush or fingers) to paint.
- Being able to make a considered choice of colour for a particular purpose.